PRESIDENT'S ROOM

The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

For the seventh year, Rockefeller Public Service Awards are again being offered to outstanding career Federal Service employees for study and travel. And again we are asking your help in making the awards known throughout your agency and in encouraging prospective candidates to apply. We should also appreciate your designating, as in previous years, someone to serve as a point of contact with the Princeton staff of the Committee on Selection.

Enclosed is a statement setting forth the general eligibility requirements for the seventh round of awards, and copies of the application forms.

As you know, last year a new application procedure was adopted which provided that only applications endorsed by and submitted through the agencies would be considered by the Committee on Selection; individual candidates could not apply directly to Princeton. This policy, which has proved eminently satisfactory, is being continued this year.

May I once again say how much we appreciate your personal interest and active support of our program.

Sincerely yours,

151 Robert F. Goheen
